

ECHO

Dear Mr. Ogono,

Thank you for being there for me these past four years. You were there when I just needed some one to tell me I was. O.K. Thanks. (And I didn't forget me) you were right.

Mrs. Ogono I must say deep in my heart + Thank you, I'm going to miss you and I love you! Love
Michelle May.

Mrs. Ogonis.

Betsy Ogonis

In all my years I have met a lot of people. I have been influenced by many of those who I meet. I would like to tell you how much you have helped me but mere words cannot tell it. If I tried to pay you back for all you've done for me I would work from now 'till the end of time. I hope that you will continue to guide kids on the paths they take. As a guide through the jungle of my high school career you showed me the way out of some pretty, ~~rough~~ <sup>rough</sup> situations. If you help your own children the way you help your school children they will change the world. Good luck in all of your future endeavors. I will miss you while I'm at college but will never forget you and all you've done for my family. I'll come to visit and share of my latest adventures. Keep in touch.

Love
Sue Johnson

Preface

As our senior year comes to a close, it is time that we, the class of 1992, say good-bye to Enfield High School. This experience fills each of us with both feelings of excited expectations and sadness. Throughout our four years together, we have shared many common experiences. Perhaps most important of all, we have built lasting friendships that neither time nor distance can sever. As we say good-bye we hold on to the knowledge that our experiences together will live forever in our memories. Good luck to the class of 1992!

Dedication

Mr. Gerald E. Rossi has been a mathematics teacher at Enfield High School for eleven years. His friendly and outgoing personality has helped to motivate his students to achieve success in his classes. His sense of humor has helped to enliven his classes. His desire to help his students is further expressed by his accessibility before and after school for extra help. The students of Enfield High School wish to extend their highest thanks to Mr. Rossi by dedicating the 1992 Echo Yearbook to him.

Great Books

Great Books Discussion Club is an informal reading group that meets bi-monthly to discuss selected literary pieces of fiction and non-fiction. The purpose of Great Books Discussion Club is to foster critical thinking and response to literature.

Kneeling: Wendy Powell, Lauren Estavank, Jennifer Hicks, Chrissy Tobey. Standing: Michelle Levesque, Sara Hilinski, Charlotte Smith, Kelly Hart, Beth Burke, Mrs. Raposa.

Ski Club

Almost nothing matches the feeling of exhilaration when you stand atop a mountain, looking down on a gleaming white landscape. It is here, with the cold air nipping at your face, that a true feeling of euphoria exits. Then, after one last check of your skis and boots, you plunge down the hill, speeding up and threading your way through moguls that could send you flying with one wrong move. Every once in a while, you speed over a jump, attempting to soar like an eagle, only to realize how earth-bound you are when your skis touch down again. Then, after a cold ride back to the top, you are ready to attempt another run.

This is the excitement of being a part of the Fermi Ski Club. For six Friday nights, you can feel the thrill and excitement of skiing, with one friend or all your friends. Skiers are also known to fall now and again. So, the motto of the Fermi Ski Club has become "WATCH OUT BELOW."

A SPARE MOMENT

You stand alone, on an alley, looking at the odds. It's ten against one. Lucky, you think, that they stand in a wedge. You concentrate on the king pin of the group. Taking a few steps up, you let fly with the only weapon you have . . . your bowling ball.

Bowling can sound like a James Bond movie, if you use your imagination. However, the sport of bowling is more like the old Greek legends of heroes striving to defeat the Fates. Through concentration and placement, you get the ball rolling. Once the ball leaves your hands, it enters the hands of the Fates. Then, with differing sounds, the Fates proclaim their decision. They can be as stingy, giving you no pins or generous, giving you all ten.

The Fermi Bowling Club, which meets on Mondays, gives you the chance to be a warrior, and to win your "luck." In the Bowling Club, you and your friends can build your concentration and enjoy fierce competition while having fun. However, if you do not have time to join the club, and are feeling valiant, you can still grab your weapon, the bowling ball, and march off to challenge the Fates at any one of many bowling alleys around this community.

— Kyle Schaefer

NOTE THIS . . .

Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Joseph Giangrasso, keeps its members busy throughout the year. Once they have built their repertoire, members perform for community groups and stage a winter concert.

This year, as in the past, the chorus kept especially busy in the winter. In December, they performed at the Elks Memorial Service at the Elks Club and in a carol sing at the Town Hall. December 4th was the Annual Winter Concert held in the Fermi Auditorium. Soloists were: David Russell, Jenn Forino, Jess Tarrant and Erin Verrengia. Also in December, they participated in decorating Christmas trees for charity at Nassau's Furniture Store. Featured singers were: Jenn Forino, Jess Tarrant, Katy Wittmer and Jess Barone, Erin Verrengia, Christine Abronze and Lisette Thompson.

Auditions for All-State Chorus took place in January. The Eastern Regional chorus performed at Jorgenson Auditorium at UCONN on January 18. David Russell, Jenn Forino and Danielle Lussier represented Fermi in this concert.

Fermi's chorus is one of which we are all proud.

Well kid, we made it! We've been through a lot of crap together! Some, in fact, more of my most memorable thoughts derived from this office! And I owe it all to you! We've shared many things - laughs, tears and secrets - of the NORMAL kids! You made my high school career what I had always hope and aspired it would be! Thanks!

See you this summer & next year as I no longer will be your student but your NEIGHBOR! When's dinner? 6:00 or 6:30?

Love Always -

Kenneth Gement

Betsy

My annual end of the year letter to you.

First, my congratulations on the wonderful addition to your family. The birth and growth of a child is certainly one of the joys in life that are so important.

Secondly, my thanks. In spite of your anticipated departure in Feb. you always maintained contact with your students, completed all tasks, and amazed us all with your high energy. Upon your return and with Bill's absence you helped out as you always have. Thanks especially for your help with the scholarships.

Third, a closing note, I'm not sure what the future holds for us. Hopefully we will be counselors at EHS but I want you to know how much I value your friendship both professionally and personally. You have taught me much about life and the true meaning of team play.

Thank you Betsy -

Bruce
